Mauricio Carvajal

Plaintiff,

-against-

Roalys Management Corporation, Jordy A. Ferreira and Erick Gonzalez

Defendants.

-----X

ACTION
UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Mauricio Carvajal individually, by and through his attorneys, Stillman Legal PC., allege upon their knowledge and belief, and as against Roalys Management Corporation (together, hereinafter “Roalys Management Corporation” or “Defendant Corporation”) Jordy A. Ferreira and Erick Gonzalez (each an “Individual Defendant”) collectively with Defendant Corporations, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1) Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants Roalys Management Corporation, Jordy A. Ferreira and Erick Gonzalez. Defendants own, operate or control a Staffing agency located at 69 E 96th Street Ste 2B Brooklyn, NY 11212 under the name “Roalys Management Corporation”.

2) Upon information and belief, Individual Defendants Jordy A. Ferreira and Erick Gonzalez serve as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendants Roalys Management Corporation, and through the corporate entity operates or operated the company as a joint or unified enterprise.

3) Plaintiff was an employee of the Defendants. He was employed as a laborer, he cleaned, assisted the maids, and picked up the garbage.

4) Plaintiff worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate compensation for the hours over 40 per week that he worked. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff appropriately for any hours worked over 40 hours and paid him at straight time, which is against the appropriate Labor Laws.

5) Defendants' conduct extended beyond the Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees. At all times relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintain a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

6) Plaintiff now brings this action on behalf of himself, for unpaid overtime wage orders pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N. Y. Lab. Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), and overtime wage orders of the New York Commission of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 142-2.4 (2006), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

7) Plaintiff seeks certification of this action as an individual action on behalf of himself, individually pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8) This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) (FLSA), 28

U.S.C. § 1337 (interstate commerce) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question).

Supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims is conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

9) Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 391(b) and (c) because all or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district.

10) Defendants maintain their company headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate one company located in this district. Further, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants in this District.

PARTIES

Plaintiff

11) Plaintiff Mauricio Carvajal ("Plaintiff Carvajal") is an adult individual who resides in Carteret, New Jersey. Plaintiff Carvajal was employed by the Defendants in Brooklyn from July 1st, 2020, until November 27, 2022.

Defendants

12) Defendants own, operate, or control a staffing agency located at 69 E 96th Street Ste 2B Brooklyn, NY 11212 under the name of Roalys Management Corporation, at all times relevant to this complaint. <https://www.roalysmanagementcorp.com/>

13) Upon information and belief, Roalys Management Corporation, is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 69 E 96th Street Ste 2B Brooklyn, NY 11212.

14) Upon information and belief, Defendants Jordy A. Ferreiras and Erick Gonzalez are individuals engaging (or who were engaged) in business with this district during the relevant time. Defendants are sued individually in their capacity as owners, officers and/or agents of the Defendant Corporation.

Defendants Jordy A. Ferreiras and Erick Gonzalez possess or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporations, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations. Defendants Jordy A. Ferreiras and Erick Gonzalez determined the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff, and established the schedules of the employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

15) Defendants are headquartered in Brooklyn, NY.

16) Defendants maintain as their principal place of business a centralized office, located at 69 E 96th Street Ste 2B Brooklyn, NY 11212. Individuals Jordy A. Ferreiras and Erick Gonzalez possesses or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporation, possess or possessed an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, and control or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations.

17) Upon information and belief, Defendants Jordy A. Ferreiras and Erick Gonzalez serve or served as Chairperson and/or as Chief Executive Officer of Defendant Corporation.

18) Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

19) Defendants possess or possessed substantial control over the Plaintiff working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of the Plaintiff referred to herein.

20) Defendants jointly employed the Plaintiff, and are Plaintiff employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C.201 et seq. and the New York Labor Law.

21) In the alternative, the Defendants constitute a single employer of the Plaintiff.

22) At all relevant times, Defendants were the Plaintiff employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of his employment and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff services.

23) In each year from 2016 to the present, the Defendants, both separately and jointly, had gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

24) In addition, upon information and belief, the Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce.

Plaintiff Mauricio Carvajal

25) Plaintiff Carvajal worked for Defendants from approximately July 1st, 2020 until November 27, 2022.

26) Plaintiff was told his work schedule would be from 8 A.M until 4:30 P.M, but his actual schedule was from 6 A.M until 8 P.M or 10 P.M, Monday through Sunday, one day off day per week with a half an hour lunch.

27) Plaintiff worked (12) twelve hours per day, (6) six days per week

28) One of Plaintiff's responsibilities was to pick up and drop off other employees of the Company and he did this at 6: AM. However, he was only credited for starting work at 8:AM and was never credited for the (2) two hours that it took him to transport his co-workers.

29) Plaintiff had to punch in and out. However, he was only able to punch in at 8:AM.

30) Plaintiff Carvajal work approximately (72) seventy-two hours per week.

31) Plaintiff Carvajal was paid $18 per hour at straight time and was paid cash.

32) Plaintiff Carvajal regularly handled goods in interstate commerce and other items produced outside of the State of New York.

33) Plaintiff Carvajal work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

34) Plaintiff Carvajal worked in excess of 40 hours per week without appropriate overtime compensation from the beginning and until the end of his employment with Defendants.

35) No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, were ever given to Plaintiff Carvajal regarding overtime and wages as required under the FLSA and NYLL.

36) Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Carvajal with each payment of wages accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

37) Defendants never provided Plaintiff with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Carvajal primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular payday, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

38) At all times, relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees to work in excess of 40 hours per week without paying them appropriate overtime compensation, as required by federal and state laws. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff not receiving payments for all his hours worked, resulting in Plaintiff effective rate of pay falling below the required overtime wage rate.

39) Plaintiff has been victim of Defendants' common policy and practices violating his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he had worked.

- a. As part of their regular business practice, Defendants intentionally, willfully, and repeatedly harmed Plaintiff by engaging in a pattern, practice, and/or policy of violating the FLSA and the NYLL.
- b. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with statutorily required wage and hour records or statements of his pay received, in part so as to hide Defendants' violations of the wage and hour laws, and to take advantage of Plaintiff relative lack of sophistication in wage and hour laws.

- c. Upon information and belief, this was done to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff properly for (i) his full hours worked, (ii) for overtime due.
- d. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with any document or other statement accurately accounting for his actual hours worked and setting forth rate of overtime wage.

FLSA INDIVIDUAL ACTION CLAIMS

40) Plaintiff brings their FLSA overtime, and liquidated damages claims as an individual action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of himself.

41) At all relevant times, Plaintiff, has been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay him the required overtime and willfully failing to keep records required by the FLSA.

42) The claims of Plaintiff stated herein are similar to those of other similarly situated employees.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Overtime Provisions of the FLSA)

43) Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

44) Defendants, in violation of the FLSA, failed to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207 (a)(1).

45) Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

46) Plaintiff (and the FLSA class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Overtime Provisions of the New York Labor Law)

47) Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

48) Defendants, in violation of the NYLL § 190 et seq. and associated rules and regulations, failed to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek.

49) Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of N.Y.Lab.Law § 663.

50) Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

New York Labor Law – Failure to Provide Notice at Time of Hiring

51) Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

52) Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff at the time of hiring or at any point thereafter, a notice containing the rate of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business; the telephone number of the employer, and anything otherwise required by law, in violation of NYLL § 195(1).

53) Due to Defendants' violations of the NYLL § 195(1), Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants statutory damages of Fifty dollars ($50) per workday that the violation occurred, up to a maximum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) pursuant to NYLL § 198 (1-b).

54) Plaintiff suffered actual damages as monetary harm because at all times during his employment he did not know his: (1) rate or rates of pay (including overtime rate) (2) the basis of that rate of his pay (3) any allowances claimed by the defendant employer as part of the minimum wage.

55) Plaintiff suffered an injury every time this lack of observance was repeated by defendants. Defendant's failure to issue wage notices to Plaintiff detailing his hours of work, pay etc., create a material risk of concrete and particularized harm to him.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

New York Labor Law – Failure to Provide Accurate Wage Statements

56) Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all allegations in all preceding paragraphs.

57) Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff with complete and accurate wage statements throughout his employment listing, inter alia, all his regular and overtime hours of work, his rate of pay, and the basis of pay, in violation of NYLL § 195(3).

58) Due to Defendants' violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants' statutory damages of Two Hundred and Fifty dollars ($250) per workday that the violation occurred, up to a maximum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), pursuant to NYLL § 198 (1-d).

59) Plaintiff suffered actual damages as monetary harm because at all times during his employment he did not know his: (1) rate or rates of pay (including overtime rate) (2) the basis of that rate of his pay (3) any allowances claimed by the defendant employer as part of the minimum wage.

60) Plaintiff suffered an injury every time this lack of observance was repeated by defendants. Defendant's failure to issue wage notices to Plaintiff detailing his hours of work, pay etc., create a material risk of concrete and particularized harm to him.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully request that this Court enter judgment against Defendants:
